

MOVE TO ADVENTURE

CAIRNS - KARUMBA

● CAIRNS (Start)

The gateway to some of Australia's most iconic natural attractions, Cairns is the perfect spot to kick-start your adventure across the Savannah Way. Lace up your boots and go on a scenic bushwalk through the Daintree Rainforest before joining a crocodile watching tour at Cape Tribulation. For some fun off shore, head out to the Great Barrier Reef and make a splash with some of the rarest underwater creatures in the world.

● KURANDA (27km)

From Cairns, head northwest to the picturesque mountain village of Kuranda. Hop on board the Skyrail and see the rainforest from the comfort of your glass-bottomed cable car or, if you're up for the challenge, visit Barron Gorge National Park and hike along the Douglas Track to reach Stoney Creek.

● MOUNT SURPRISE (381km)

Sitting on the edge of the Undara lava field, Mount Surprise is a fascinating town that holds an important place in the region's history. Take a fossicking lesson and try your luck searching for quartz and aquamarine gems, or learn more about the landscape on a tour through the lava tube caves at the Undara Volcanic National Park. After a day at Mount Surprise, journey south to Cobbold Gorge and discover one of Far North Queensland's best kept secrets. Cruise out to the gorge and explore the hidden oasis from the water or, if you're happy to splurge, hop on a helicopter tour and enjoy a bird's eye view of the Gulf Savannah region.

● COBBOLD GORGE (299km)

After a day at Mount Surprise, journey south to Cobbold Gorge and discover one of Far North Queensland's best kept secrets. Cruise out to the gorge and explore the hidden oasis from the water or, if you're happy to splurge, hop on a helicopter tour and enjoy a bird's eye view of the Gulf Savannah region.

NORMANTON (387km)

Known for its laidback atmosphere and old-fashioned charm, Normanton is a great place to stop on the way from Cobbold Gorge to Karumba. Hop out for a bite to eat at the historic Purple Pub, then take the short drive to the Mutton Hole Wetlands for an afternoon of bird watching before heading north to Karumba.

KARUMBA (71km)

After a journey through some of Far North Queensland's most popular destinations, finish your road trip at the peaceful riverside town of Karumba. Join the locals for a fishing tour on the Gulf of Carpentaria before heading to Lions Park for a barbeque by the water. After dinner, zip across town to the aptly named Sunset Tavern and enjoy a cold drink in their scenic outdoor beer garden.

